Sahayini is an outreach programme developed and managed by the Salesian Sisters of the province of Auxilium Mumbai. The programme is aimed at all those who are deprived of the basic necessities of life, their rights to a fuller life of dignity, peace and happiness.

The Salesian sisters are a group of religious women who have constantly been engaged in meaningful action for the growth and upliftment of children, youth and women. Their objective has always been to search out ways and means that can bridge the gap and lead towards a better life.

The Salesian Sisters along with their support teams have been constantly organizing, educating and training children of those less cared for. Special programmes have been created to support the children in their study, social and cultural growth. With the sponsorship of higher education and skills development, Sahayini hopes to enable the students to realize their potential and move ahead in life.

Today, Sahayini has its outreach programme in 17 centres across India. Touching the lives of over 200 children in need through non-formal coaching classes, sponsorships and individual care.

Dear Guardian,
